

Alhamdulillah (I'm a Muslim)

I am just a rock, and every day I sit and watch the sky.
I sleep here in the sun and rain, and do not question why.
I don't want to be a bird, 'cause us rocks were never meant to fly,
But you can sit and rest on me when you pass by.

*Alhamdulillah, alhamdulillah, I'm a rock, and that is all Allah asks of me.
Alhamdulillah, alhamdulillah, I'm a muslim, and there's nothing else I'd rather be.*

I am just a tree, and this is the only life I'll ever know.
I bow my boughs in worship whenever I feel the wind blow.
And my purpose in life is to grow when Allah says grow,
And be a home for the birds and shade for folks below.

*Alhamdulillah, alhamdulillah, I'm a tree, and that is all Allah asks of me.
Alhamdulillah, alhamdulillah, I'm a muslim, and there's nothing else I'd rather be.*

I am just a person, and my life is full of opportunity.
I can travel through the world, over land and over sea.
But will I choose the path of Truth, or a path to misguide me?
Sometimes I wish I had a simple life, just like a rock or a tree.

*But alhamdulillah, alhamdulillah, I'm a person, and Allah has given me a choice that's free.
So alhamdulillah, I choose to be a Muslim, and there's nothing else I'd rather be.*
